

JACKET No.

Law Office A. PARLETT LLOYD, S. E. Cor. St. Paul and Saratoga Streets, Baltimore, Md.

Claim No. 62609 of Robert Blanes Co. 1st, 9th Regiment, U.S.C.

On this day and date below written, personally appeared the affiant whose signature is hereto affixed and who being duly sworn according to law testified as follows:

"^{Our} ^{are} ^{My} ^{ages} ⁵⁵ ^{years} ^I ^{reside} in Baltimore, Md., at No. 11 York Street, West

We the undersigned have known the claimant Robert Blanes to suffer with rheumatism, heart disease and fever since Sept. 29-93 to such an extent as to wholly disable him to perform any hard work whatever, that he has lost 1/3 his time from the light work he has been able to do. He does such as white-washing any light work that he can do. We are on most intimate terms & have been for the past 5 yrs & he has never been a well man for said length of time.

This testimony was all written in our presence from our own oral statements made to Oct Beale at the office of Parlett Lloyd on this 20th day Oct. 94 that making ^{same} we have not been aided or prompted in anyway,

I have no interest in this claim.

Instructions—
Read Carefully.
Under the order of the Commissioner of Pensions number 229 in the preparation of testimony in support of claims in pension cases, all statements affecting the particular case and not merely formal must be written or prepared to be written in the presence of the witness and from his oral declarations made to the person who then reduces the testimony to writing or then prepares the same to be typewritten. And such testimony must embody a statement by the witness that such testimony was all written or prepared for type-writing (as the case may be) in his presence, and only from his oral statements then made, stating also the time, place, and person, when, where and to whom he made such oral statements, and that in making the same he did not use, and was not aided or prompted by any written or printed statement or recital, prepared or dictated by any other person, and not attached as an exhibit to his testimony.
