

Also personally appeared Solomon Travers residing at 835 Cliffton St Baltimore and Mary Travers residing at 835 Cliffton St Baltimore persons whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, and who, being by me duly sworn, say that they were present and saw Frances Barnes the claimant, sign her name (or make her mark) to the foregoing declaration; that they have every reason to believe, from the appearance of said claimant and their acquaintance with her of 14 years and 30 years respectively, that she is the identical person she represents herself to be; that she is without other means of support than her daily labor and an actual net income of not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars per year; and that they have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

Official character

To be executed before some officer of a Court of Record having custody of its seal, a Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, or other officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes. If such officer is not required by law to have and use a seal, his official character, signature, and term of office must be certified by the proper State, County, or City officer under his official seal, unless such a certificate has been filed in the Bureau of Pensions for general reference.

Testimony in support of allegations made in a declaration may be taken before any officer whose authority and signature are duly certified, and who shall disclaim any interest, direct or indirect, in the prosecution of the claim.
