

Well, I thought that I might as well have the pension as the last wife he had. I took care of his children when he was in the army and raised them without any cost to him and I thought I ought to have the pension. I am not able to work and I think if any one is entitled to it I ought to have it.

A Parlett Lloyd is my attorney. There was nothing said as to what I was to pay him if I got the pension. I have not paid him anything.

James D. Barnes of Centerville Mo is a brother of Robert Barnes. Robert Barnes died at his house. The woman he was living with as his wife at the time he died, was Amanda and not Mary A. I know that Amanda was with him at Centerville at the time he died.

I have understood your questions and my answers are correctly recorded in this deposition which has been read to me.
