

DEPOSITION

Case of Frances Barnes, No. 822. 171On this 14 day of May, 1900, atState of Calif., before me,C. H. [Signature], a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared [Signature] who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

1 county that Barnes married the 2 Pitchett woman. He continued to live
3 with her down there until a time
4 when I heard she had died. He 5 then came to Baltimore. No he 6 did not come to live with 7 me. As I told you before I never 8 had anything further to do with 9 him after I left Dorchester County.
10 It was some seven or eight years after 11 I came to Baltimore before Robert 12 came. He went to live with his mother -
13 she is now dead. No, I had not 14 remarried before he moved to Balti-
15 more. He hadn't been here long before
16 he is said to have married a woman
17 named Eliza Rich. He lived with her
18 for quite a while when she died here
19 in Baltimore. My daughter Mary Frances 20 Travis is the only one I know of who 21 knows that this woman Eliza is 22 dead. She attended the funeral.
23 After Eliza's death he is said to have 24 married Amanda Hopkins here in 25 Baltimore - that was about three years
26 before he died. He was living with her 27 at Centerville, Md. when he died. He 28 died there in January of last year.
29 I have heard that this Amanda is now
