

law. No sir, I signed no papers and was not sworn to any, that day at Dorkins or Dawkins; The next I heard of this matter was a short time after meeting these 2 men at Dawkins, I rec'd a postal from Lloyd requesting me to Call at his office Cor, St Paul & Saratoga sts, I went to his office as requested, and went there for the purpose of making my first Application for pension. John Thomas of this City, & of Co, B. 19th U.S.C.T. and I think another Col'd, man whose name I Cant recall went that day with me to have my application made, Thomas made his Application the same day & I understood that we acted as witnesses for each other in our respective applications, I Cant say what The other man did, I now remember that I met this man there, (Lloyds) Thomas & I went there alone, I understood Thomas to be my witness to my original Application, he touched the pen to a Cross on my Application & he & I were sworn together, I signed Thomas Application by touching the pen, & was sworn with him to his Application. Yes I was sworn twice that day once to my application & once to the application of John Thomas
