

DEPOSITION

A

Case of Robert Barnes, No. 626 009

On this 10th day of August, 189 , at

State of Kentucky, before me, Chas. H. Allen, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared

Thomas & I, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: We (Thomas & I) were sworn that day. No there was no one else sworn with us. A squire called Warner swore Thomas & myself to our applications for Pension.

I can't remember who whose present when we were swearing. Yes sir there was others in the office at the time, but I can't say who they were or how many were there. Mr Lloyd was present, as he wrote my Application.
Yes I am sure he wrote my application.
No sir; the stout man who resembles Mr Lloyd, was not present when my Application was prepared, or when I was sworn to it. No sir, I was never sworn in his presence. I can't remember of ever meeting him but the one time that was the night afternoon he met me at Dawkins & asked me about my name & service. Yes sir, I am sure & positive that I did not sign any paper or swear to any paper that day at Dawkins or at any time ~~for~~ in the presence of this man.

Yes sir I am sure that Mr Lloyd
