

at Fairfield in Green River Co. had my owner and his family are all dead except his grand children.
I learned my age from my mother and mother before the Civil War when I was about 23 or 24 years old.

Our age were kept in a chest of paper by our owner but no names were on the paper - yes, our names were on the paper and our age but I do not know what became of the paper.
The book of Brothman was. Had the book that belonged to his grand-father Richard book, but I do not know whether my age is recorded in that book or not. I have no family record of age of my own.
There are no white people living older than myself who know my age - and there is no colored person living who knows my age.

Richard book the age of my own owner was about 1 1/2 years older than myself as the book was many a time. It is now dead.
Yes, I know my age when I visited Mo, they did not ask me my age when I visited that I remember.
No, I have no acquaintance among the white people who are as old as myself, who know me when I was young - neither are there any colored people living, as old as myself who know me when I was young.
I am not able to refer to any one who knows my age.
