testimony of all the witnesses.

of the original affairs; Edward Johnson Jr. is now somewhere in the State of North Carolina. I could not ascertain where - William Douglass is dead.

Reputation for truth of said affairs: Good.
While I was unable to secure testimony of eye witnesses to the fact that Claimant was wounded as alleged. Yet from the character of the testimony obtained by me in connection with that originally filed I am of the opinion that claim for said wound is meritorious, and I recommend admission.

So far as the claim for disease or injury to left eye is concerned. Claimant states that it was received prior to enlistment.
And makes no claim for same.
