P.O. address 668 Rutland St. - Jun 1868 - I was born in Jan 19 1864 name is George S Miles but I enlisted in Jan 19 1864 Princess Ann, Somerset Co Md. Co 7. 9. U.S.C. - Watkins was the name of my mother's mother. I was free born and was sometimes called Miles sometimes Watkins; I became acquainted with Madison Hance in the Army. He belonged to Co 7. 9. U.S.C. - He was away in hospital a good part of his service but what his troubles were I don't know he must have had some troubles or he would not have stayed around the hospital so much of the time. About four or five years ago I went with Hance to an Agents office, ^{at Paul M.} a Col somebody who either had one arm or one eye could remember his name.
I went there just to identify Madison Hance as being the same man of that name who came with me in Co 7. 9. U.S.C. I signed a paper which was read to me and the Agent whose name I do not know, was called in from the next room and swore me on the Bible. I don't know Harry S Cummings or Robert Ashbury.
I did not see any one else sign that paper the Agents clerk was there. I did not know of his departure or the cover of it until after he came home from the Army, and he then stated that that was the reason he was away from the regt. and that what I intended making apparent to - I am a pensioner under the name of Miles don't know but
