Baltimore, Maryland

Dear Sir:

This is in reply to your letter of January 19, 1937.

The only form on file signed by you is a statement to the effect that you hold Maggie McCall responsible for payment of the accrued pension to which you may be entitled for services rendered during the last sickness of Jane Henshill.

The accrued pension of $18.67 was awarded to Maggie McCall on October 27, 1936.

All communications relative to this case should bear the veteran's name and refer to the number MC-663,191.

Respectfully

H. L. BAILLY
