

DEPOSITION C.

Case of Annie Ballard, No. 57.6.865

On this 22 day of March, 1895, at 805 N. Fremont Ave. County of Baltimore State of Maryland, before me, G. A. Halley, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Mrs. Elizabeth P. Webster, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 67 years old.

Occupation, none. Residence, 805 N. Fremont Avenue, Baltimore Md. I have known Annie Ballard nearly or quite 30 years. She was a young girl when she came to me as a servant. She had formerly belonged to some of the family. She was living in my house when she married Henry Thomas. I do not know where she was married. It was at some colored church. She was married in August, on a very hot night. She dressed at our house for the occasion. I could not tell what year she was married. It was about 25 or 26 years ago. I don't know the name of the preacher that married them. None of our family saw her married. She continued to live with us, but went to her own room at night. I saw Henry Thomas frequently but I have not seen him for over 20 years. I don't know what has become of him, whether he is alive or not. I don't
