

not know whether they had a license or not. I knew of her marriage to William Ballard at the time. She was not living out at that time, and I think she has not lived with us since. I have seen Ballard at the house before they were married. He looked to be a healthy man. I think I saw him once afterwards when I went to try to get Annie to come and work for me. I could not say when he died, or what caused his death. He was blind at the time of his death. I know he was sick some time before he died, but do not know what ailed him. I think Henry Thomas was dissipated and treated Annie cruelly. I could not say which left the other. I think my former affidavit read by you is correct, and that he did leave her. I do not now remember.

This deposition has been read over to me and I am correctly reported
