mother's house until he joined the Reds.

When Joseph Ross and I first came to Battimore we lived in Vincent Alley, remaining there about three years - then moved to Stockton st. We separated while living in Vincent Alley. I was out working and when I came home one night he had taken his things and left and we did not live together any more. I have never remarried since his desertion of me, but I will not say whether I have cohabited with any man, ~~as~~ I do not care to talk about that. Since we separated I have been working out for my living - I worked out for before we separated. I worked for Mrs. Williams who has moved West somewhere. I have mostly done washing since that and have been out to service some since. Robert Brooks wife has known me several years. I have worked for them. They lived here on Holland st. near the market - between Carey & Battimore sts. Susan Wilson (nee Snowden) knew my husband for years and has known me for some years. Mr. Mr. - Bryan lived next door to me when we lived in Vincent Alley.
