

DEPOSITION

B

Case of Catharine Ross, No. 604737, 659,012

On this 8 day of Feb., 1898, at Baltimore, Md., before me, N.N. Aile, a State of _____, before me, N.N. Aile, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared _____, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: That her age is about 40 years; post-office address, 48 Franklin St. City occupation, I am the widow

I know nothing about her of Frank Ross. I know nothing about her or when he was discharged. There was only one my hands two years before he died - he had a paralytic stroke and another one before he died. He was married by her father a number of minor children. He told me that he never had been married, but after he died I heard that he had been married to Olga Bush

I began moving to buy him, but I have given up trying to get a pension on account of his service. I have done nothing in my claim for two years and do not intend to do anything. I have given it up for good. I heard that he lived with a woman named Ellen, at Amherst and had two children by her - the he left her and took up with Olga and I heard that he married Olga, though I do not know certainly about it. I do not know before any thing more to do about this pension matter and will my name before out of the case. If Olga is the legal widow let her have the pension.

I have mentioned your question and my answers have been correctly recorded.
