Sir;

I have the honor to submit the following report

Under instructions as per office letter marked Exhibit B of this report, I made diligent effort to locate the complainant Mrs E Lawrence, by personal inquiry and in person, In this I met with failure, I then determined to find the pensioner which proved a difficult task indeed as her present residence is distant from where she has lived for many years, I finally located her and after a few minutes conversation with her, I served the usual notice and instructed her as to her rights in the premises, I told her she need not answer any question which would tend to criminate her in any manner, but she declared she would tell the truth, and I believe she did so as that then she
