

4

knew of the whereabouts of Lawrence as well as she did today, I was told that Lawrence could be found at 1412 Riggs Ave City when I called there the woman at that number said he was down on Morris Alley, at his home, I then called on the pensioner and asked for Lawrence she declared he was not there and had not been there, and to prove it sent for him and he made his appearance at once, and in the pensioner's presence I took his deposition, The point at issue is whether pensioner has violated the provisions of the 2^d Sec act of Aug 7 1882, Her own admissions and the evidence of the witnesses stated establish beyond doubt the truth of the statements contained in the letter of Complaint, The pensioner is a woman far below the average of her class in intelligence, I believe she tells the truth when she declares that her cohabitation with Lawrence could have nothing to do with her pension unless she married him, She evidently did not nor does she now think that having intercourse sexually with a man out of wedlock can in any way interfere with her receiving a pension or jeopardize