

her chances of Heaven, Lawrence bitterly denies that he inspired the writing of the letter of complaint. The fellow simply lies, but he is so ignorant as to be hardly responsible, more he appears to be on the ragged edge of the grave, I do not believe there is any need of further action save that the pension should be dropped, and the pensioner's name taken from the rolls.

Very respectfully
 Chas. Hauback
 Special Examiner

67