

5- it now.

5". Bolden's wife, as Claimant states, only lived nine or ten years, and died in Baltimore Md.

6". No child survived the father all died either the child directly or soon after so Claimant alleges.

7". Bolden was far gone with consumption when he visited his mother in Shepherdstown W. Va.

8". Bolden always when visiting his mother in Jefferson Co W. Va. called her mother, and this Claimant always claimed George W. Harris as her son.

9". Claimant has not remarried since Jarrett Bowman's death.

10". Claimant's maiden name was Harris. She could not give Christian name of Bolden's father. He was a slave, and only known to her as George.

I believe this Claimant is honest in her stating that George W. Harris was never married but once, to the best of her knowledge, and she was very much
