

GENERAL AFFIDAVIT.

READ CAREFULLY. Order No. 229 made June 19, 1893, by the Pension Commissioner, makes it necessary for the validity of an affidavit to be filed in a Pension Claim, that the witness after telling what he knows about the case shall subscribe to the following:

First. That his testimony was all written (or prepared to be type written) in his presence and from his oral statements then made.

Second. He must also state the time and place, when and where he made the statements, and the name of the persons to whom he made them.

Third. He must also testify that in making such statements he was not aided or prompted by any written or printed statement or recital, prepared or dictated by any other person, and not attached as an exhibit to this testimony;

Memorandum. If the affiant writes his own affidavit, it is only necessary for him to comply with paragraph three above.
Paragraphs 1 and 2 do not apply.
