

State of Maryland, Baltimore City, to wit:

BE IT REMEMBERED, That on this 10th day of September

A. D. 1897, before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the said State, in and for the city aforesaid, personally appeared

Mary F. Cox, age 32, 1130 Stockton St., Balto. Md.

William Polry, <sup>age 48</sup> 1130 Stockton St., Balto., Md. ✓

and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that to wit: -

We are intimately well acquainted with Kate Fry, widow of Jesse Fry, and knew both her and her husband before they were married and neither of them were previously married and lived together as man and wife until his death neither she nor her husband were ever divorced and she has not remarried since his death.

We further testify that she owns no estate, real or personal, no stocks, bonds or securities and that she is dependent upon her own labor for support and the contributions of those not legally bound to support her.

This was written in our presence from oral statements made by us to Attorney at Baltimore Md., date as above and we were not aided by

Dependent no property no divorce