I don't think Nelson did much of anything in the way of work after he came home from the army. He didn't remain around here long. He was too sick. I do find work and he went to Washington to get something better to do.

I don't think Nelson contributed much anything towards supporting mother after he came home from the army.

My mother has invested out all money and done whatever she could get to do.

Mother has lived with my oldest sister until she moved to Johnston Pa. and she has been with me at different times.

My brother had a bad cough and hemorrhages before he died. He spent the most of his time before he went to Washington with my sister Mary. He didn't come home but once or twice after he went to Washington.

I have no interest in the claim. I understand your question and our answers have been correctly recorded in this deposition.
