Nelson didn't work for Dr. Scott after the war he tried to live on Dr. Scott's farm just outside of Hagerstown but he couldn't work he was sick so much.

Nelson, was too sick to contribute anything to my support after he came out of the army. I often sent things to him after he went to Washington.

I think Nelson was under age when he went to war, he was my oldest child Mary is the next and there is about a year between the set that is all I can say.

Q How do you know you are 55 years old

A Well that is what I think

Q Give me the name of the 1st President that you remember?

A Andrew Jackson

Q Who was next to Jackson?

Van Buren.

Q How large were you when Jackson was President?

I was quite a girl but I don't know how large or just how ^{old} Mrs. Henry, and Purnie Jones have known me all my life and can tell these things.

Q Did you ever have an record of your birth, marriage, and the birth of your children?

A Yes sir Mrs. Silberman, put them all down in the public Court. I have no memory and how to do the best I can from what people tell me. Mrs. Henry has told me the most about my family.

I can't go with you and have no one to send

I understand your questions and my answers have been correctly recorded.

Witness as to me,
