

of the Press, by inquiry at the Navy Department, and by consulting the City Directory;

If Ann Blow is found, she will give the name and probably the present address of the old colored woman with whom Soldier is said to have lived while in Washington, D.C.

Some of Ann Blow's children may possibly be found.

Notice of further examination, waived.

Very Respectfully,
F. B. Kelly,
Special Examiner.