DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
BUREAU OF PENSIONS

WASHINGTON, D. C.

November 29, 1916.

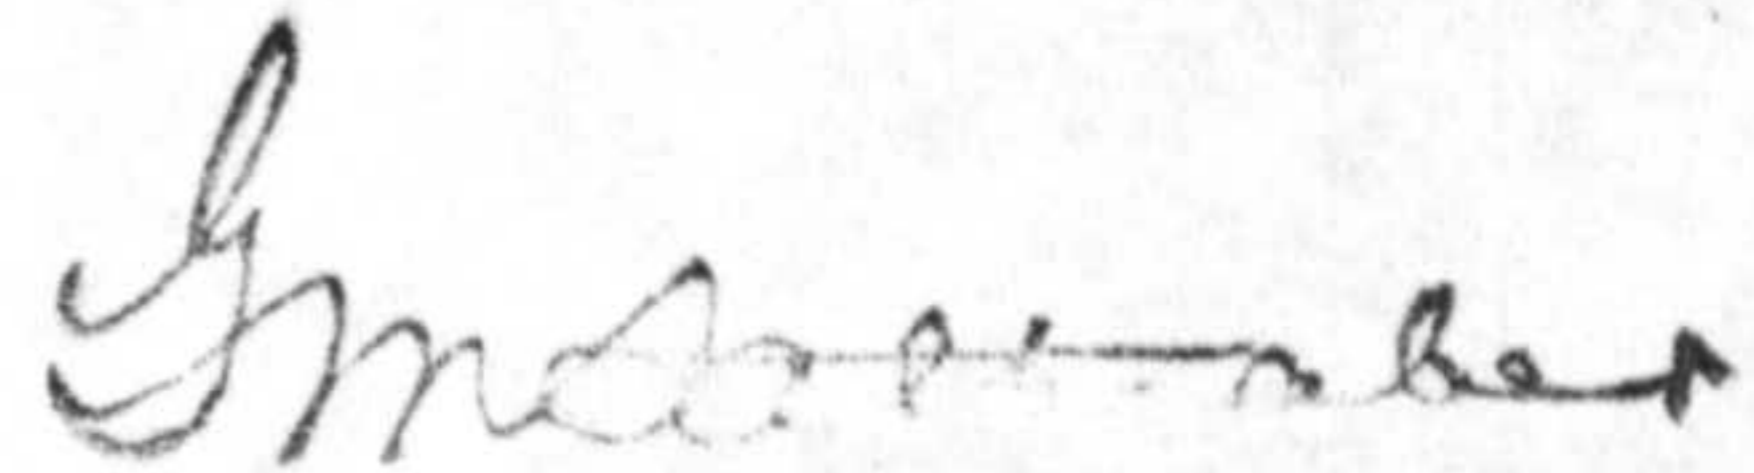

Mr. William Johnson,
736 Penn Avenue,
Camden, N. J.

Sir:

In response to your attached letter of the 23rd ultimo, you are advised that it does not appear that any declaration for pension which you may have executed, based upon service alleged to have been rendered in Co. C, 10th Md. Vols., reached this Bureau.

If you will return this letter with an endorsement showing the full and correct name under which your service was rendered, the period thereof and the correct designation of the company and regiment to which you belonged, a further effort will be made to identify the claim.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

GCS/BES
