DEPOSITION

Case of Edward Dorkan, ^{Ch} No. 753,843

On this 14th day of May, 1895, at Baltimore, County of Maryland, State of Maryland, before me, W. B. Brooks, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared William H. Fisher, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: My age is 49 years

I have known this applicant intimately for the past twenty three or four years. he has never been a waiter, and up to within the past year have seen him a dozen times each year but have never worked with him What has been his physical condition during those years?

Up to about ten years ago as near as I can get at it he appeared sprightly, then about about 1884 or 5, he was taken down to his bed, sick with rheumatism as he told me at the time it was.
I used to go in to see him frequently when he was sick. It seemed to affect both his feet, for as he was able to get out I frequently saw him walking
