Your letter dated August 23rd, addressed to the above claimant has been handed to me for a reply. Should there be any assistance that we can render in properly determining the merits of this claim, I should be pleased to hear from you. I may further say that I have investigated the case, and can probably direct your assistants to the source of information, whereby this case can be determined at once.

As I have advised you heretofore, I will receive no compensation for my services in this connection, which information was confirmed by one of your investigators recently, so that I would be glad to have your further advices.

Very truly yours,
