August 21, 1914.

Georgia Clark,

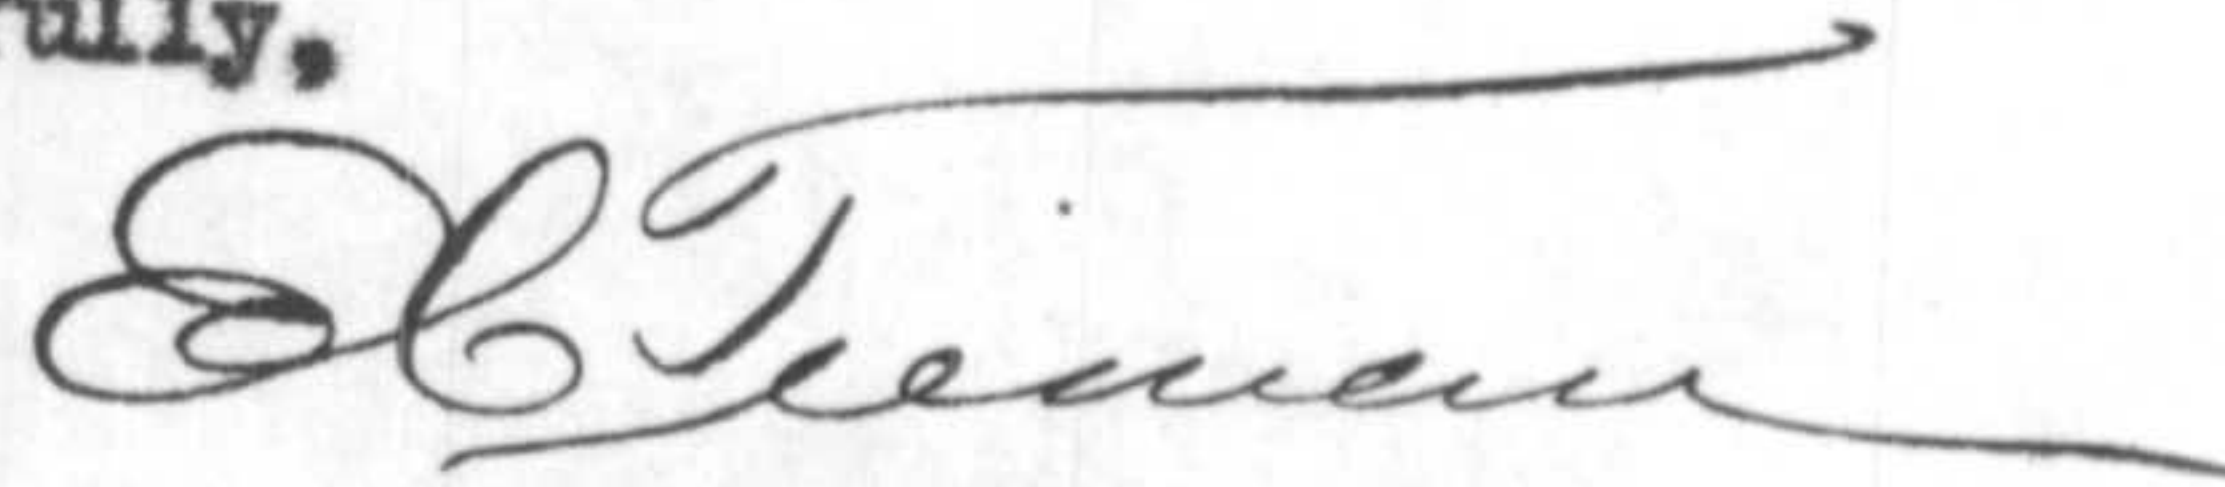

Port Deposit, Md.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of the 14th instant, in the case of Lucy J. Owens, certificate number 737,514, you are informed that the pensioner being dead, her certificate should be returned to this Bureau under cover of the enclosed envelope which requires no postage.

The pension accrued to the date of her death is not an asset of the estate, and the same is payable only as reimbursement of expenses incurred in her last sickness and burial, in the event she did not leave assets sufficient to meet such expenses.

Very respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.
