

DEPOSITION

Case of Lucy J. Quene, No. 865,209

On this 20th day of January, 1912, at Carelvny, county of Cecil
State of Md., before me, L. C. Walsh, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Moses R. Taylor, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

1 I am 72 years of age, P.O. address and residence at 2 alone and occupation farmer. I am not related to Lucy 3 J. Quene this claimant, only her late husband, John 4 Quene was my cousin, but I have no interest in the 5 presentation of his claim for pension. I have lived here all 6 my life. The said John W. Quene was born & raised 7 right here too. I had knowledge of the said John W.
8 Quene from his boyhood. The said John W. Quene was never 9 married but once; the only wife he ever had was this 10 claimant. I have known the said claimant all her life.
11 She was born and raised right in this neighborhood. Her 12 maiden name was Clark. She was never married until 13 she married the said John W. Quene. As near as I 14 can calculate said parties were married to each other 15 in the year, 1866. It was in the fall of the year that 16 they were married. No Sir, I was not present at their 17 marriage.

Q. Where were they married.

A. I know where they said they were married. We Colonel Jacks had a picnic here that day and the said John W.
Quene and this claimant came to the picnic that evening together and they said that they had just come from the preacher's where they had been married. Yes Sir, said parties lived together as man and wife from that time to the death of the said John W. Quene. It seems to me the same time John W. Quene was ever dead. I am sure of it. Yes, Sir, I am sure of it. I am sure of it. Yes, Sir, I am sure of it. I am sure of it. I am sure of it. I am sure of it.
