

3-289.
(Old No. 3-446.)DEPOSITION E.Case of Henrietta Frisby, No. 738989

On this 4th day of January, 1902, at Baltimore City, county of Adams, State of Maryland, before me, Asst Davis, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared William White, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: I am near 60 years old though don't know exactly my age, occupation none, and my residence & P.O. address is No. 217 S. Parrish St., Baltimore, Md.

I have known Benjamin Frisby and his wife Henrietta ever since the year 1867.
 I was a private in Company A. of the 1st Regt. U.S.C. Vol. Inf. and was discharged from that Co. in 1865, I think in the Spring and not long after President Lincoln was shot. It was about two years after my discharge and return to Baltimore that I got acquainted with Ben Frisby and I knew him and his wife continuously thereafter until his death. I have lived in the same neighborhood with them during all that time and seen them often and visited them in their home.

I know that Benjamin Frisby and his wife Henrietta lived together as husband and wife continuously from 1867 when I first became acquainted with them to the day he died, and were never separated or divorced.

Benjamin Frisby died here in this City about a year ago, I think, though I did not see his dead body or attend his funeral. Henrietta has not remarried, but is still the widow of
