

no military duty, then we were sent to Dutch Gap & was still sick from there, was sent to Front of Petersburg Va all this time I was attended by Dr Morris the Regimental Surgeon, then to Deep Bottom Va - where we remained some months I was still on the sick list - then I was sent to New Market Heights Va - was there some four months, still on sick list some times I could drill, then I was with the Regiment on the sick list when it went up to the front of Richmond - then we were in Fort Harrison until Spring, then I was sick, but occasionally could do duty, then we went to Sheridan's Command - some times I do little duty but mostly sick, then we went to Petersburg - where I could do light duty - then went on the wagons - to the place of Lee's surrender in Virginia - we came then to City Point - during this time I could sometimes do duty & sometimes not but always under medical treatment, we then took the boat & went to Indianola Texas, all the time I was in Texas I was sick we next came to New Orleans at this time my health had somewhat improved - on the voyage home I was sick all the way until I reached Fort Federal Hill Baltimore where I left the army and from that time to the present I have been a sick man. - I was just attended after my discharge by Dr Dix who lives five miles from Drummondtown A. A. Co. Va for Pneumonia & Rheumatism this was the early part of 1867 - he attended me for three months, again in June same year Dr Dix attended me - afterwards I came to Baltimore to get treatment & was attended by Dr Bell at corner of Lee & Sharp st Baltimore - then I was attended by Dr Cook corner of Hanover & Parre st Baltimore, then I was treated by Dr Robinson Cor of Charles & Saratoga Baltimore, then I have been doctoring my self from Dr Landentack, Saratoga & Eutaw Street and I am still taking medicine

Wm. B. Wilson

Nathaniel Hickman

Sworn to and name written in my presence on this 6th day of November A.D. 1886 & I certify that the affiant is presentably worthy of belief he says he has related the contents of this paper & that the same is true & I certify I have no interest in said claim.

Wm. B. Wilson Jr.