

were to attend to, and that we did attend to it is shown by the fact that we returned the order for a medical examination, requesting a new one and stating reasons therefor. This was all that could be done by any attorney, and the fact that the Office paid no attention to our request should not operate against our attorneyship.

Very respectfully,

Soule & Co