Sir;

I have the honor to return herewith a credibility inquiry which is in a territory now not in my district. When the Eastern Shore of Md. including Kent Co. was taken from my district. This inquiry was the only work I had in that county.

I was however not instructed to turn over any work I had on hand to the Special Examiner who succeeded me in Kent to Md. consequently retained this inquiry. Thinking it possible I might be called to the locality on other work.

Having no work in Md. and no prospect in the near future of being in the vicinity of this witnesses residence - it would probably work an injustice for me to retain the inquiry longer - and I
