

To all whom it may concern

This is to certify that Hester Brown and Kitty Reily personally appeared and made oath on the Holy Evangel of Almighty God that they were personally acquainted with Jacob H. Hazzard the son of Mary Hazzard and certify that he contributed towards her support the amount of about five-dollars per month. The said Jacob H. Hazzard was at the time of his death twenty-five years of age. He gave towards her the said Mary Hazzard his mother all his earnings with the exception of what he kept for clothing. He hired out by the year and his employers always gave him his working clothes the money he kept was to obtain cloths for sundays. They further certify that they have no interest direct or indirect in the prosecution of the annexed claim.
