person of lawful age, who, being duly sworn, declare in relation to the aforesaid claim, as follows:

It would be impossible for me to give the exact time I incurred disease of heart. I have been subject to palpitation of the heart, and shortness of breath for a long time. It would come on me in spells, when I would be laboring at Plastering, at last the attacks became so frequent, I had to give up plastering altogether. The first time I called the Doctor's attention to it, He told me I had Heart Trouble, that was some time in the year 1894. It has continued to grow worse ever since. Until now sometimes I am afraid to go out in the Back Yard for fear of falling, and I further state, the said disability, are not due to vicious habits
