

State of Maryland, Kent county, ss:

In re, right of claim for Inv. pension, No. 692.783, of Thomas Carmichael, late of Co. "C", 9th U.S.C.T.
Personally came before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for aforesaid county and State, Harrison Jenkins, aged 37 years, whose P. M. address is Chesterburg, Kent county and State of Maryland, and Levi R. Barnett, aged 50 years, whose P. M. address is as above, persons well known to me by rep-utable and entitled to full credit, and who, being duly sworn, declared that they have well and intimately known the claimant for the past 20 years, and 40 years, respectively; that they have lived in the same town with him, a near neighbor, and have seen him almost daily during the past 10 years; that they personally know that the claimant, for the past 8 years, has been, and is now afflicted and a sufferer from lumbago, injury of left ankle, res-ulting partial or slight paralysis of left leg and arm, caracervins, vertigo and general debility; from above reasons, and from having frequently visited and seen him while suffering from aforesaid disabilities, and heard him complain from the same, and from gen-eral knowledge, that affiants further declared that the aforesaid disabilities are not due to vicious habits and are, they believe, of a permanent character. In affirma-tion and belief, the claimant, for the past 8 years has been, and is now disabled from availing of propo-
-tion of one-third labor and time of a so-
