that disability prevents his working

Here give the claimant's statement as briefly and as compactly as possible.

Upon examination we find the following objective conditions:

Here give a full symptom picture of the case, embracing all the physical and rational signs, but confining it to the present condition of the claimant.

It must be borne in mind that the duty of the Surgeon is to give an opinion as to the proportionate degree of disability, as $\frac{1}{2}$, total, &c., through the grades, without any regard to dollars and cents, and to make such a full particular description as will afford to this Office the ground for intelligent opinion and action in rating.

General Physical Condition fair
No deformity or other evidences of any injury to the ankle - Complaints of some sensitiveness on pressure
Says the ankle was dislocated but there are no evidences to that effect
Varicose condition of veins of right leg inner and anterior aspect - Venen at large and knotted Long saphenous vein much enlarged to about the middle of the thigh
Heart and lungs
No other disability

From the existing condition and the history of this claimant, as stated by himself, it is, in our judgment, probable that the disability was incurred in the service as he claims, and that it has not been prolonged or aggravated by vicious habits. He is, in our opinion, entitled to a 0

Rate for each cause of disability. If prolonged by vicious habits, the word not should be erased and the reason for the erasure given.
