

I went to the office of some man on St. Paul St. I do not know the name of the man who took down my testimony nor do I remember what sort of looking man he was. The man who wrote my statement down was the same man who swore me. I was sworn on a bible I am quite sure. I cannot say what year that was. Appears to me it was in the fall and about two years ago, I think. I can write my own name. I cannot identify the signature of the paper you show me as mine. It looks like my writing and may be it. I now remember that Mitchell has complained of deafness since I have known him. He is slightly hard of hearing but you don't have to hawl at him to make him understand you. I cannot say that he has had to lose 1/2 of his time on account of deafness and disease of eyes but I know he has lost right much of his time because of the pains in his head. I have never testified but once in this case ~~and once~~ ^{did testify several times in} ~~in another case~~ ^{for Henry Grogan} (a name). I am positive that the man who wrote down my statement when I went there ^{to testify} was the same man who swore me. I never went to that office but once. No sir, I did not make my statement one day and go back the next day and swear to it. I do not know Mr. Lloyd. I cannot positively describe the man who took my statement and swore me. I have no interest in this case. I fully understand the contents of this deposition.
