FILES

The Acts of May 9, 1900, and June 27, 1890, require, in case of a soldier or seaman:

1. That there has been a service of not less than ninety days in the war of the Rebellion.
2. That an honorable discharge from the service shall have been issued.
3. That a disability, permanent in character, not due to vicious habits, exists; question as to origin, not material.
4. The rates are graded from $0.00 to $12.00, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support by manual labor; pension in no way affected by rank.
5. A pensioner under prior laws may apply under this one; a pensioner under this law may apply under the general law; only one pension, however, can be drawn for the same period.
