

DEPOSITION

3

Case of Eliza Ross, No. 659012

On this 21 day of Feb., 1898, at Baltimore, Md., before me, N. N. Kile, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared John Wilson, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: That his age is about 50 years; post-office address, 11 Stoddin at city occupation, watcher.

I know John Ross long before the war. It was then living in the company in the neighborhood of Amphibia. It was a close neighbor of Amphibia. It was a close neighbor of Amphibia.

I do not know whether he was born there, but I think he was born there. It was a man with a family when I knew him down there - I had then or from elsewhere by his first wife. His first wife died after the war at Amphibia. It was not then in the country I believe when he indicated in the company. His first wife's name was Eliza but I do not know her maiden name.

After the war he came back from the war he and his wife Eliza lived in Amphibia and she did then. I do not know when she died - do not know whether she died before he married Eliza or not. I think he married Eliza there in Amphibia - he said he married Eliza, but I was not present at the ceremony and do not know. Before Eliza married John Ross her name was Bank. I did not know Bank and do not know whether she was married to Bank. I cannot tell how long she and Bank lived together - I did not know them. I heard that Bank died in Amphibia of Amphibia - but I do not know whether he was in the army. That I do not know whether he was in the army.
