

DEPOSITION

Case of Elysa Ross, No. 659.012

On this 23 day of July, 1898, at Winchester, county of Anne Arundel
 State of Md. before me, J. N. Hill, a Special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Maria Connor ^{att}, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: That her age is 38 years; post-office address, 19 Clay St Ann Arbor, Mich.

of Frank's term, but I am acquainted from my husband. I am the daughter of Joseph also, and my mother's maiden name was Ellen Tyer. My father was a clerk ~~for~~ and belonged to Stephen B. and who lived at the heart of Denver river about 12 miles from here. I do not know the meaning their project. I think they cannot mail from this place. My mother was not a place as she always told me. I heard that my

These last four were named by Logan from Ben a Colonel friend of mine. I do not know of any one now living who was present at the massacre

I do not know whether there is any record of this marriage, like or other record. I think my Aunt Maria Trud, now living at Bonn, would learn about this marriage. My mother and father ex-arrived near the synagogue about 1870, but I cannot fix the date. They were not aware that I knew of. I do not know the cause of the elaborate attack that my father was running about with other women my dear, let him go next November. He will Known whether or not feathers ever moved like Rose.

They lived together but sometimes after before this was a ~~scholar~~ student, and when my mother was young. My father and mother had four children - three are now living. My father Jack Ross was white and my mother was white and my mother was young.

one way had day in Baltimore when he received a private letter