

90
 at a ... she is now helpless, compelled to long as I have known her much has been her condition as especially the hands dreadfully distorted of one eye gone, the body and

St. Barnabas' Church,
 Middle Street, cor. Argyle Avenue, Baltimore, Md.

Jan. 5/12.

To whom it may concern - This is to testify that I have known Eliza Jackson personally for the past eight years. During that time I have attended her in my official capacity as a priest of the Roman Catholic Church. Her faith, patience, and endurance under most trying circumstances has been marvellous. As invalid as long as I have known her, suffering almost extreme poverty and privation, I have often wondered that she has been able to exist at all. Her husband, Jas. A. Jackson during all the years that I have