November 27, 1915.

Mr. J. Henry Baker,
225 Law Building,
Baltimore, Md.

Sir:

In response to your communication of the 23d ultimo, relative to the case of Eliza Jackson, widow of James A. Jackson, late of Co.H, 9th U.S.C. Inf., Widow Cert.No.794,555, you are advised that this Bureau does not certify, nor does the law regulate, attorney fees in connection with court proceedings relative to the appointment of guardians, committees or trustees, but such fees are usually regulated by the court in which the fiduciary may be appointed.

Respectfully,

G. M. SALTZGABER.
Commissioner.
