July 14th., 1926.

E. W. Morgan, Esq.,
Deputy Commissioner of Pensions,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Morgan:-

I am handing you herewith the affidavits suggested by you to close the case of Jane Jordan, about whom we were speaking the other day, when I was in Washington.

I trust that the matter may be adjudicated.

The affidavits, I believe contain the information your Department desired, and also the present address of the Claimant.

Thanking you for your many courtesies, I am,

Very truly yours,

Daniel P. Willis
