When the amount of accrued pension is large the following evidence of marriage should accompany every application for accrued pension:
1. A duly verified copy of a church or other public record; or
2. The affidavit of the clergyman or magistrate who officiated; or
3. The testimony of two or more eye-witnesses of the ceremony.
If prior to the marriage of the widow and the pensioner, either of them had been married to another party, the death of said party, or divorce from the same, must be proved.
This application and the blank voucher herewith should be properly executed and forwarded to the Commissioner of Pensions.
It is desirable that the witnesses should be able to write their own names; if not, their marks should be witnessed.
