D, 19th U.S.C. Inf.

Gentlemen:

Mrs. Annie E. Jackson has brought to me an application blank which you sent to her on September 25, 1922. This application seems to be for reimbursement for the funeral expenses and cost of last sickness of Benjamin Welch, a deceased pensioner. There seems to be no place in this application for facts concerning Rebecca Welch, the widow of Benjamin Welch, who died without leaving a sufficient estate to cover the costs of her funeral expenses and doctor bill. If there is a form that covers this particular type of case, I would appreciate your sending it.

Thanking you for your attention to this letter

I am

Yours truly,

F.
