Gentlemen:

In reply to your letter of the 27th inst.
Rebecca Welch, the pensioner, left no property, either real or personal, and did not receive any sick of death benefits. If my memory serves me right, it is more than twenty years ago when I had her insured for $129.00 with the Prudential Insurance Company, Newark, N.J. All the premiums were paid by me and I was the beneficiary named in the policy.

I am enclosing herewith the signed statement of the Physician and Undertaker.

Very truly yours,

Annie E. Jackson
