DEPOSITION

Case of Amanda Parker, No. 335706

On this 23rd day of June, 1897, at Concord county of Massachusetts, before me, Caroline Cussett, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared
 _____, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: That his age is _____ years; post-office address,
 _____; occupation,

Ans. That it was a long time I would say nearly 2 years, I knew when the baby was born we used to kid her by saying long as she lived with Parker she could get no baby, but with Lawrence it was different.
 He always said the child was Lawrence's.
 They separated in the spring of this year then Lawrence went back to her and stayed until the baby died long about the 1st of June, then they separated and she has not lived with him since.
 He got mad then but I knew he did not write that letter and he would tell who did write it.
 I don't know his number, if you can find his sister Mina phenwood she used to live in Vincent alley but she has moved somewhere and is living with her son, This sons name is Perry Brown, I don't know his address but he keeps a mill sawing. (Directory 1897 shows Perry A. L. Brown 1412 Riggs ave city sawing mill)
 I have known pensioner since she quit Lawrence and I have never known of her or heard of her cohabiting or consorting with any other man.
 I know she did not have any idea that her living with Lawrence and having intercourse with
