NOTE.—The affidavits may be executed before any Magistrate who is authorized to administer oaths for general purposes. If not a Clerk of a Court of Record, his official character must be certified by such Clerk under seal. The names and dates of birth of children, for whom increase is claimed, must be proved by copies of baptismal or other record, duly authenticated by oath of the person having the same in custody, or by affidavit of attending physician. On due allegation by applicant that such evidence is not to be had, she may offer the affidavits of two credible and disinterested witnesses, who must state their means of knowing the facts. All affidavits must be executed as required in this note.
