

months of his death.

Yes, I know that George's wife died before he did, because he lived with another woman after she died, though he did not marry her. He had one child by her but the child died soon after he did. He lived with Margaret Barker - she is also dead.

Yes, I am certain he did not marry Margaret Barker - I did not live far from them and I know they were not married, and I know their child died at the age of about three years.

I have been correctly reported.
