The act of June 27, 1890, requires in cases of dependent mother:

- (1) That soldier died of a wound, injury, or disease which under present laws would have given him a pension.
- (2) That he left no wife or minor child.
- (3) That the mother is at present dependent on her own manual labor, or the contributions of others not legally bound, for her support.
- (4) That all pensions under this act commence from date of receipt of application (executed after the passage of act) in the Pension Bureau.
